OPTION PERIODS REMAINING: There are no options to renew remaining.

SCOPE OF SERVICES: Consultant will continue to provide a professional development program and cultural delivery system to integrate arts curriculum in four DPS schools: Juarez, Ruiz, Saucedo and Spry. Consultant's services will continue to include the following:

- Coordinate school and community arts and cultural services to help schools create communities of learning for students, faculty, parents, and artists.
- Increase the school's organizational and leadership capacity to integrate standard-based art education with language arts, social studies, and other subjects.
- Provide a range of arts programming (focusing on folk dance, folk song, folk arts, story telling, theatre, and photography) which draw upon the cultural heritage of at-risk learners.
- Organize comprehensive professional development communities, in each school, to improve teaching and learning through using best practice strategies.
- Involve parents and the community in the project, to improve learning of at-risk learners.

DELIVERABLES: Consultant will continue to deliver the following:

- With schools and project staff, implement the plans of curriculum integration developed in year one, and assess the effectiveness on arts learning. Provide curriculum guides.
- A range of folk arts workshops & summer programs designed to draw upon the cultural heritage of at-risk learners and facilitate integration with curriculum. Post student projects on the Collaboratory web site.
- Organize comprehensive professional development communities in each school to improve teaching and learning through using best practice strategies.
- Implement the action research plans that teachers proposed in year one. Post the on-going progress and end-of-year findings on The Collatoratory web site.
- Collect data to create a model for integrating standards-based arts education for dissemination at CPS, including evaluation of the program and teacher action research studies.

OUTCOMES: The professional development and cultural delivery system implemented by consultant will result in improved teaching and learning of at-risk students through building an understanding of how artworks are produced and the role they play in society, improving students' social skills, creative thinking and problem solving through cultural arts programs. Teachers will benefit from increased utilization of best practice strategies and integration of standards-based arts education into general curriculum.
