POLICY ON PARENT AND STUDENT RIGHTS OF ACCESS TO AND CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS	Brendan Perry

1. Why is this policy/Board rule being amended, created, or rescinded now? (e.g., state legislation, compliance change, policy was out of date, biennial policy review, CEO/CEdO recommendation, etc.)

This policy is being amended to update practices, names, and deadlines to more accurately reflect the School Code as part of the biennial policy review.

2. Please provide a high level summary of what policy/Board rule changes are being made, or created, and why.

We are changing language to be more compliant with the Illinois School Student Records Act ("ISSRA"), and adding definitions that are more inclusive of CPS families.

3. Please provide any notable feedback from internal or external stakeholders, and how you addressed it or planned to address it in your policy/Board rule draft.

The most notable feedback that we received from internal stakeholders is that we have included steps and language that are not articulated in ISSRA. By removing this language, we are creating clarity for families who look to this policy to understand their rights and responsibilities.

4. Please provide any additional notes/considerations in the box below.

If the principal or the principal's designee denies the request to amend the record, parents may appeal in writing to the network chief or the chief's designee. The written appeal must be made within ten (10) school-days from the date of the school's denial to amend the record.

If the network chief denies the parent's appeal, the parent has the right to request a formal hearing by submitting a written request to the ~~Executive Director of Policy, Procedures~~ Policy, Ethics, & Records, Board of Education Law Department, Chicago Public Schools, Chief Education Office, 42 West Madison Street, 1 North Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois 60602. After the hearing, if the school district still decides not to amend the record, the parent or eligible student has the right to place a statement of reasonable length with the record commenting on the contested information in the record. A copy of that statement shall be included in any subsequent dissemination of the information in dispute.

Either party shall have the right to appeal the decision of the local hearing officer to the Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) Principal Communications Consultant, Problem Resolution Office, 555 West Monroe Street, Suite 900, Chicago, IL 60661 within twenty (20) school days after such a decision is transmitted.
