1	Why is the board allowing the counseling team of MLA to remain in the building after they had full knowledge of the cases. Several staff members remain in the building including the art teacher who is in violation of student grooming. Txt calling electronic board policy violation and also all these individuals had knowledge of all the cases at MLA
2	Requiring school uniforms and punishing for not complying is a violation of first amendment rights. In addition, many schools violating OMA since they refuse to put meeting minutes and lsc contact info on school website. Lsc relations needs to police this loophole and any lsc not being transparent needs to be removed. They are hiding parent concerns from network chiefs. Phil salemi aware of violations and is not properly reporting to dcfs but he is retaliating against parents and kids
